ricultural Journal is needed in the Valley of the Mississippi, has determined to issue one commencing with the New Year, Jan'y, 1868.

FORM CLUBS FOR 1868.

It will continue to be published in its present
excellent form of 16 pages (so as to preserve and bind conveniently.) It will be embellished with appropriate engravings. It will contain a Review of the Markets. It will be devoted to the interests of the Western Farmer, Fruit Grower, Vineyardist, Stock Breeder, &c.

LIST OF PREMIUMS FOR CLUBS.

GRAPE VINES FREE.

To any person sending 4 names and $8, I will send by mail, carefully packed in moss, 6 well-
rooted Concord Grape Vines, or 6 Clinton, or 4 Hartford Prolific, or 4 Taylor's Bullitt (white), or 1 of each of them.

SMALL FRUITS FREE.

To any person sending 4 names and $8, I will send 1 dozen St. Louis Red Raspberry, or 1 doz.
Doolittle's Improved Black Cap Raspberry, or
1 doz. large Red Dutch Currants, or 1 doz.
Houghton Seedling Gooseberries, or half a doz.
of the celebrated Philadelphia Raspberry, or 1
doz. each of the Agriculturist, French's New Seedling, and Russell's Seedling Strawberries.
For double the number of names, double the amount of Premiums, and so on.

AN ORCHARD FREE.

For 20 subscribers at $2 each, I will give, nicely packed and delivered at any Express Office or R. R. Station in St. Louis, 50 Choice Apple Trees, assorted varieties, or 50 Choice Peach Trees, or 25 Apple and 25 Peach Trees.
